

Florida Engineers in Education (FEE) Scholarships

The Florida Engineers in Education or FEE is one of the five practice sections of the Florida Engineering Society or FES representing those members who are engaged in teaching, research, or administration in the field of education. The objectives of FEE are to provide for professional engineers in education a forum for effective discussion, exploration, and analysis, and provide for FES a vehicle for obtaining advice by professional engineers in education with respect to:

1. Improvement of undergraduate, graduate, continuing education, and technician programs for accomplishing the engineering effort of our nation.
2. Stimulation of professional concepts, including registration among engineering educators and students.
3. Cooperation with the American Society for Engineering Education, the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology and other engineering societies in matters affecting educational policies and practices.
4. Promotion of an atmosphere for engineering educators conducive to the highest quality of engineering education.

As part of the FEE mission, the practice section is awarding 4 scholarships to students throughout the State of Florida. Awardees shall use the scholarship toward meeting their educational goals in the field of engineering.
